

Xmas Goods

Consisting of

Parisian Ivory Comb and Brush Sets
Manicure Sets Dresser Sets
Solid Silver and Plated Silver
Hammered Brass Cut Glass China
Toys Dolls Games in great variety

at

McSwain Bros. PRESCRIPTION DRUGGISTS....

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Buy Red Cross seals.
T. E. Smith sells it for less.
If you want the best flour use Sunflower.
Put Red Cross Seals on your Christmas packages.
Judge Lytton Taylor is in Nashville on business.
Mrs. E. T. Ewing has been on the sick list this week.
Dolls, Dolls, all kinds of dolls at McSwain Bros. 12-4-1f.
Phone 197 for quick printing. The best there is, at prices that are right.
Mr. Alex Trousdale, of the Buchanan neighborhood, is critically ill of pneumonia.
Gentry Browne, of St. Louis, is here the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. A. G. Trevathan.
Miss Nola Williams, of Puryear, was in Paris Thursday, and was a pleasant caller at this office.
Editor Eugene Travis, of the Camden Citizen—an editor as is an editor—was in Paris Thursday.
Roberts Bros. Drug Co., and G. H. Trevathan knows about Liv-ver-Lax. You need it for your liver.
Mesdames Freeland and Snyder, of Paris, are organizing the Ladies of Honor lodge at Murray.
Marvin Ethridge, a negro who was confined in the city lock-up for a minor offense made his escape Monday night.
In order to make some changes in business I will sell photographs at half price until after holidays. Jenkins Studio. 12-4-2t.
No need for calomel with its nauseating effects. Liv-ver-Lax is happy in results.—Roberts Drug Co., and G. H. Trevathan.
A set of 1847 Rogers Bros., silver spoons or knives and forks makes an ideal gift. Let us show you.
T. E. Smith.

Nat Ryan has again been elected president of the Calloway County Fair association and M. D. Holton is retained as secretary.

A Globe-Wernicke Book Case is a gift that appeals to the intelligence and refinement of the recipient. See them at T. E. Smith's.

FOR RENT.—Three furnished rooms one block from square. No one with children need apply. Apply at this office. 12-4-1f.

Liv-ver-Lax stimulates the Liver. A harmless vegetable compound. Any child can take it safely. Ask Roberts Bros. Drug Co. and G. H. Trevathan.

Eczema Germs can't live where you use Eczema Soap and Eczema Cure. Cure guaranteed or money back. 7-24-1f

Will Gatlin brings back the news from Keelfoot lake that Luther Miller killed 103 black-birds at one shot, or with one shot we forget which. But after investigation and a closer count the number of dead birds gathered up after the celebrated shot was only 102 and one-half.

T. E. Smith sells it for less.
A large selection of Parisian Ivory at McSwain Bros. 12-4-1f.

W.R. Hooten is the man to buy sewing machines of.
Useful Christmas gifts are the only kind we sell.

T. E. Smith.
J. Mon. Meador, of Calloway has moved to his farm near Puryear.

Where can you get the best Christmas bargains? Very simple. Read the ads. in The Parisian.

All boys like velocipedes. We sell them for less.
T. E. Smith.

Liv-ver-Lax is harmless—not a deadly poison like calomel. Any child is safe and happy by the use of Liv-ver-Lax.

Rooms For Single Gentlemen, 2 nice large furnished rooms, electric lights, furnace heat, bath, hot and cold water, one block public square.
H. L. Bruce, 202 S. Poplar St.

Mrs. Frank Bradley died last Friday at her home near Cross-land. She was the daughter of the late James Moore and was born and reared near Boyds-ville. She is survived by her husband and several children.

Last will and testament of Emily A. Caldwell has been admitted to probate. Y. Q. Caldwell, A. B. Mitchum and Mrs. W. D. Morris are the legatees, and Messrs. Caldwell, Mitchum and Morris were named in the will as executors.

Let us help you make your dollars go a long way by buying your Christmas presents at T. E. Smith's.

Liv-ver-Lax is purely vegetable. Just what you need to tone up your system. Ask G. H. Trevathan and Roberts Bros. Drug Co.

Will Vandyke, a negro, reported to the officials Tuesday that another negro, named Olive, held him up at the point of a pistol and robbed him of $10. Olive has not been captured.

Mrs. M. T. Eaker, of Paris, is a patient at Mason's Sanatorium. Mrs. Eaker is well known here, being a daughter of Mr. John W. Whitnel, of this city, where she was reared. Her many friends are wishing for her a speedy recovery.—Murray Times.

John Lannon is the Parisian's traveling representative. He is authorized to collect subscriptions, receive renewals and new subscribers and receipt for same. Any favors shown Mr. Lannon will be appreciated by the management, and by him.

Wednesday was a big cotton day for Bolivar more cotton was sold by farmers than any day this season. We fail to get the exact figures but between 130 and 150 bales was bought by the merchants here, average price about 7c.—Bolivar Bulletin.

If you want the best and most suitable Christmas gifts for a man or a boy, come to a "Man's" store to get them. Suits, overcoats, shirts, hats, caps, neckwear, hosiery, handkerchiefs, rain coats, trunks, bags and suit cases.
Humphreys Bros. & Foster.

No Longer The European War Clouds Cast Their Gloom Over Our Grand Old Stars and Stripes.

WE are already beginning to feel the great wave of prosperity sweeping upon us from over the sea. This whole nation can give praise this Christmas for many things. But while we are happy and prosperous, let us not forget the the poor and unemployed. Let your Xmas giving reach those who need it most—and be practical in your giving. What would be nicer, more useful or appreciated THAN a nice pair of shoes, house slippers or a box of guaranteed sox for father, a swell pair of Selz English shoes, a comfortable pair of house shoes, or a few pairs of silk hose.

FOR BROTHER

In a pair of house or bath room slippers that will make winter's long weary days more enjoyable.

FOR THE CHILDREN

We have everything that is new in foot-wear—the best guaranteed hose and pretty house slippers.

FOR SISTER

Well you should just gaze upon those 1915 street and evening slippers. There is nothing like them this side of Memphis—and don't forget Phoenix Silk Hose.

FOR FRIENDS

Nothing is nicer and more appreciated than silk hosiery.

While most firms are falling behind last year's business—we are proud to say our business is running far in excess of last year.

WHY?

Because the good public is learning that to buy shoes they must go to a regular shoe store—Where quality is paramount, prices are right and perfect fits are guaranteed.

YOUR CHRISTMAS STORE

HUMPHREYS' ROYAL BLUE STORE

WEST SIDE COURT SQUARE

Notice.

Each person sending us a bundle of LAUNDRY next week, Dec. 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18th will receive a Christmas Souvenir in their package. No bundle received later than 10 a. m., Friday the 13th, for Saturday delivery.

TROY STEAM LAUNDRY.

Do not forget to send your laundry bundle to us next week. Troy Steam Laundry.

NOTICE.—All parties indebted to D. R. Choate will save cost by paying the account at once.
D. E. Bomar, Trustee. 1t

NOTICE.—All parties indebted to D. R. Choate will save cost by paying these accounts at once.
D. E. Bomar, Trustee. 1t

Bring your County Warrants to D. E. Bomar, Trustee. 1t

Holeproof Hosiery put up in handsome holiday boxes, put up six pairs in a box for men, women and children make splendid and useful gifts.
Humphreys Bros. & Foster.

W. W. Dean, of Big Sandy, was in Paris Monday.

Christmas rockers cheaper than ever before at T. E. Smith's.

Roy Price spent the week end with homefolks at Big Sandy.

Messrs. Rupert Askew and Jas. Cook are in Louisville this week.

Mr. T. B. Walker, who has been seriously ill continues to improve.

Children's rockers from 50c up at T. E. Smith's.

Give her a Coffee Percolator—we know she'll like it.
T. E. Smith.

Miss Anne Balch is the guest of friends at Ft. Worth, Texas.

Two little sons of S. Calhoun of Puryear, have scarlet fever, though one has almost recovered.

Men, here's the Christmas present for your wives. It's save them 5000 steps, 365 headaches, 300 wasted hours and 200 frazzled tempers. It's the Hootier Kitchen Cabinet.
T. E. Smith.

Mrs. Jennie Wheatley, of Danville, spent Thursday of last week in Paris.

Mrs. Jas. F. Winfield and sister, Miss Irene Morris, were in Memphis Wednesday shopping.

Give him an easy rocker and he'll like to stay at home.
T. E. Smith.

Same old Story—What shall I give him for Christmas? Come here and we'll tell you.

Humphreys Bros. & Foster.

ROOMS TO RENT—On call. Phone 578 Dunlap St. 1t

Mr. K. J. Compton, of Whitlock, was in Paris Wednesday and while here renewed his subscription to The Parisian.

Mrs. William Pool, of West Paris is suffering from appendicitis. She was operated upon this week by Dr. A. H. Miller.

Dr. Charles and Thomas Briggs, of Nashville and Dr. A. H. Miller, of Paris, last Sunday operated upon Mrs. W. W. Lewis for appendicitis. Mrs. Lewis has been in a critical condition but since the operation it is believed she will recover.

Insurance Lightens The Load.

A man could easily bear to be poor, and could bear to take his wife and children down with him into poverty, PROVIDED he could be with them to help carry the load, and carry the largest part of it himself; BUT to go off to his eternal rest and to leave them to go down alone into poverty, and to fight the wolf from the door—what prospect more terrible than this to look forward to?

For seventy years the New York Life Ins. Co. has been putting itself in the place of the money earner and assuming the family burden. Let us show you how reasonable is the cost, and the many ways of doing it. Your friends,

Alexander & Carter

Stoves-Stoves-Stoves! Little and big, and all cheaper than ever at T. E. Smith's.

The gifts of all gifts—a nation some Brass Bed. See ours—they're guaranteed.
T. E. Smith.

Mrs. Ernest Turner and Miss Minnie Dudley are in Washington where they will spend several months for Mrs. Turner's health.

See our great Christmas display of handsome Neckware, the silks are elegant and our prices moderate, 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.
Humphreys Bros. & Foster.

Dr. E. W. Bandy, one of our prominent bankers, who was a practicing physician for a number of years, but for the past few years cashier of the Bank of Gleason, is a candidate for state auditor under Gov. Rye.—Dresden Enterprise.

"Uncle George Bennett, one of the county's oldest citizens, who resided in Hollow Rock, died suddenly Tuesday. He was 90 years old and for many years had been a Justice of the Peace and was a well known citizen of that part of the county.—McKenzie Banner.